The Origin of The Bradshaw Family

FIRST CHAPTER

The name Bradshaw is decidedly of English origin and means "the vast wood" the word first being applied to a place near the present City of Halifax, in Lancashire, and later to inhabitants of the town. The first mention of the name in existing records is that of a Sir John Bradshaw who lived in England over 900 years ago at the time of the Norman Conquest. The bearers of this name in England were mostly of the Landed Gentry and lesser nobility and lived in the North West Counties. Thomas de Bradshawe, 1339, was the sire of the first recorded family of this name and among his descendants is the celebrated Judge John Bradshaw, 1602-1659, who presided at the trial of Charles I, and was first to sign his death warrant. William, b.1596; Henry, b.1600; Francis, b.1603; were brothers of John and sons of Henry Bradshaw and Catherine Winnington, who were married Feb. 4th, 1593. This family were Puritan followers of Oliver Cromwell and with the restoration of the Monarchy under the Stuart line in 1661, the members of the various branches fled to the American Colonies and Ireland in order to save their heads.

In old Irish records the following Bradshaws are mentioned, viz, John Bradshaw of Ballinderry; William Bradshaw and John Bradshaw of Mageragall; all of County Antrim; listed in Hearth Money Rolls for 1669. Joseph Bradshaw born in Cheshire, England, died March 23, 1673, buried in County Kilkenny, had a son Joseph. In County Monaghan, at Fermagh, the following are buried; Valentine Bradshaw 1685-1757, Ann Bradshaw d.1752, James Bradshaw, d.Oct. 28, 1778, age 48, another James Bradshaw 1731-1801. Merrion Graveyard, Dublin; Mary Bradshaw 1674-1772, Elizabeth Bradshaw 1745-1821, wife of William. Mary (above) was mother of same William. Count Edmund Bradshaw and Joseph Bradshaw were Commonwealth soldiers settling in Ireland in 1661. Among old Irish Wills the following are found; Richard Bradshaw of Co. Kildare, in 1596, John Bradshaw of Co. Monaghan, tanner, in 1681, John Bradshaw, merchant, in Dublin 1714, Rev. John Bradshaw of Co. Meath in 1731.

The Milecross family lived about one mile from Newtonards, County Down, and were very prominent people. The family was established by a Cromwellian soldier named Captain James Bradshaw who was born in Yorkshire in 1619, joined the army of Parliament in 1639, and died Sept. 14, 1686, from wounds received at Drogheda in 1649. His wife, whom he married on April 22, 1656, was Ann Patterson, a daughter of Judge Robert Patterson of Isle of Man. Of this union there was a large family but records exist on only one member, James Bradshaw, 1679-1754, who married Anna Turner in 1707, and whose descendants own "Bradshaw's Brae" as it is still called. This family, who were "near relatives" of Judge John Bradshaw, the regicide, engaged in farming and the linen business and had a bleaching green at Milecross. The Bradshaws were members of the Quaker sect but later became Anglicans.

To

CAPTAIN JAMES BRADSHAW—U.E.L.

A tired, sick, old man, who gave up his home, possessions, and friends, suffered imprisonment, and came to a strange country to carve a new home in the primitive forest . . . because he believed in a principle.

THIS BOOK IS DEDICATED TO HIS MEMORY.

Foreword

Oshawa, Ontario,
July 21st, 1942.

Dear Friends:—

After more than four years of constant research, by Mr. Manley Ostrander and the writer, it is indeed a pleasure to finally present you with a Bradshaw Genealogy. The information in this book has been obtained from reliable sources, and, to our knowledge, is true and authentic in every detail. No work of this kind, however, can be claimed infallible, so you are therefore requested to note any errors, or omissions, in the page provided in the back of this booklet. Are you one of those persons that never keep records of your family? If so, you will have no further excuse to fail in that duty since pages have been provided in the back for the recording of births, marriages and deaths.

It is our sincere wish that this little volume will bring to the younger generations a pardonable pride in their ancestry; revive many happy memories in the minds of the older folk; and give to all of us a deeper sense of our own responsibilities as citizens of a democratic country.

Sincerely yours,

C. G. Crouse, publisher.

NOTE: Although much time and effort has been spent to connect the Canadian Bradshaw family to these Irish families, to date the compilers have not been successful. The foregoing information is presented only as clues for those who wish to carry on this Genealogy at some future date. While definite proof is still lacking, we are quite certain that our Bradshaw family is descended from the Milecross family, for the following reasons, viz: 1. Our own "Captain Bradshaw" was a native of Ireland and his family were Quakers and Anglican. 2. William Bradshaw, the original American settler, called his new Colonial home "Bradshaw's Hill" or "Brae" and tried to establish a linen business in America. 3. When Captain Bradshaw established an Anglican Chapel in his wilderness home in Canada it was called "St. Warburg's" Parish, which was the name of the Parish at Newtonards, Co. Down. 4. The definite similarity in the names of the Milecross family and the Connecticut family. These views are also shared by Genealogists, who assisted in this work, both in Ireland and in the United States. The Coat-of-Arms shown in this book were carried by both the English and the Irish families. The old tombstone pictured is from Newtonards, County Down, seat of the Milecross family.

Family of William and Mary Bradshaw

SECOND CHAPTER

William and Mary Bradshaw came to America from Ireland about 1728-30, and settled in the Connecticut Colony of New England. The first mention of the family is made when William bought 10 acres of land from Nathan Terrill on Dec. 4, 1730, and 12 acres from Jeremiah Canfield on March 17th, 1731. These records, from the land books of New Milford, inform us that the land was undivided and that Mr. Bradshaw was "now" a resident of New Milford which indicates that he had probably just settled there. From time to time more land was added to the holdings and the Bradshaw family became extensive landowners. The place where they settled was known as 'Punkin Hill' but later was called 'Bradshaw's Hill' and was located on the road between Newton and New Milford at a place called 'Still River Neck' at the Great River. This river is now named the Housatonic, and with the other places mentioned is located in Litchfield County, State of Connecticut. On the 30th. day of May, 1734, William Bradshaw made his Will and died three months later on August 7th, 1734. He named his wife Mary, and his friend Samuel Canfield, as his Executors, and left the following possessions; Flax hackels, a Loom, and cards; a feather bed, six books, and a fiddle, as well as home utensils, and his land real estate. (A copy of the Will is enclosed herewith). It is quite evident that he intended to establish a linen industry in America but found conditions much different to those in his native Ireland. After his death, the elder sons John and Jarres, carried on the land business and bought, sold, and leased, their lands along the Great River. Mrs. Mary Bradshaw died about 1747 at New Milford and her possessions were left to her son Thomas.

THEIR FAMILY:

1. Eleanor, m. James McKinney at N.M. Feb. 10, 1741. n.r.
2. John, m. Sarah Videtto (see Genealogy below).

5. Anne, m. Burden, no records.
6. Thomas, died March 10, 1753, n.r., prob. unm.

NOTE: This family must not be confused with that of Humphrey Bradshaw, 1614-1682, an English settler in Massachusetts in 1642.

Family of John and Sarah Bradshaw

JOHN BRADSHAW was a native of Ireland and the eldest son of William and Mary Bradshaw. At New Milford on June 4th, 1740, he married SARAH VIDETTO of Danbury, (prob. dau. Stephan and Mary Videtto) and had five children:—

NOTE: The above families are intermarried into the OLMSTEAD family which moved to Ohio from Connecticut about 110 years ago.

* Samuel Brownson was a United Empire Loyalist and a Corporal in the King's Rangers during the revolution. With his son, Samuel, Jr., he settled near his brother-in-law Captain Bradshaw, on the west half of Lots 18 and 19 in the 4th Concession of Fredericksburgh. The Brownsons were members of the St. Warburgh Parish and donated the ground for an Anglican burial-ground.

Captain James Bradshaw, U.E.L.

THIRD CHAPTER

James Bradshaw was born in Ireland about 1723 and was a son of William and Mary Bradshaw of New Milford, Connecticut. His first business venture was at real estate as a result of having land left to him when his father, and his brother Thomas, passed away. He also entered into the fishing business with his brother-in-law, Samuel Brownson, and operated a shop (on the west side of the Great River) for the catching, curing, and selling, of fish. Later on he decided to go into the landowner business in earnest and organized a Land Company with 22 associates from Connecticut. On the 11th. day of May, 1762, they acquired 23,000 acres of land from Benjamin Wildman in Albany County, New York Province. This land was known as the 'Kingsbury Patent' and covered an area six and one half miles square. When the great Albany County was split up into smaller Counties this area was renamed Charlotte County, and was later changed to Washington County after the American Revolution. The first to enter the tract was Bradshaw himself, who came in 1763, but did not bring his family until June of the following year. James Bradshaw sold land to Simeon Chandler on Nov. 12th, 1760, and with the proceeds he bought 500 acres of the 'Kingsbury Patent' which was later called 'Bradshaw's Township', for the sum of £60. On May 7th, 1764, he sold more of his property, to Benjamin Roburds, before finally moving to his New York property. The shop in New Milford was lost when Henry Franklin foreclosed on a Mortgage which was made to acquire funds for the Land Company.

When the original thirteen Colonies revolted with a Declaration of Independence in 1776, the people had to make a choice of joining the rebels or remaining loyal to the Crown. Among the latter we find James Bradshaw, of Kingsbury, who received a Commission as a Captain in 1777 and served in DeLancey's Brigade until 1779 when he was captured and imprisoned in the Oesopus Goal below Albany. His house and barn were burned when Major Carleton retreated and he lost his farm, woodlands, a share in a saw-mill, and suffered much from his loyalty to George III, and the British cause. How he escaped his captors is not known but he managed to reach Montreal where he was quartered on November 24th, 1780. At Berthier later he petitioned Sir John Johnson for relief in a letter dated January 5th, 1781. As a result of this appeal he was placed in a Company of Pensioners of the King's Royal Rangers and was residing at Soriel in 1783 on a pension of £5.0 per month as a Lieutenant (obviously reduced in rank as a non-combatant).

When the Treaty of Ghent ended the American Revolution in 1783, 'Captain' Bradshaw, as he was familiarly known, came with the disbanded troops up the St. Lawrence River, spent the winter in tents at Cataraqui and subsided on rations until provision was made for settlement. He was Incorporated as a Loyalist in the year 1780.

Captain Bradshaw and his three loyalist sons; David, Asahel, and James, settled with Major Roger's group in Fredericksburgh Township, then called the "3rd. Town", and went about the task of building homes in the wilderness. On July 12th, 1797, his land grant was confirmed for 300 acres, although he had been living on the land for 10 years, and the place became known as Lot 14, on the 5th. Concession of Fredericksburgh, where the M.E. Church was built some years later. On Feb. 25th, 1788, David Bradshaw went to Montreal to represent his father and give evidence to the Claim Board in an effort to collect damages suffered by Captain Bradshaw in the War of Independence. In the evidence David claimed his father was old and infirm and therefore unable to attend personally; was a native of Ireland; had 56 acres improved and well-fenced (at Kingsbury) which he valued at £3.0 per acre; had nearly 450 acres of woodland valued at 16 shillings per acre; and lost furniture and farming utensils. David also produced an affidavit from Ensign Thos. Sherwood to the effect that Bradshaw was imprisoned in Oesopus. Moses Williams supported the testimony of the Claim, and the sons were granted 2,000 acres of land on Nov. 16, 1797. Captain Bradshaw's home became known as "St. Warburgh's Parish" of the Anglican Church and some of the first Anglican services in Upper Canada were held in his home. The Rev. John Langhorn*, according to his papers of 1789, conducted services there (as well as Marriages, and Baptisms), and finally buried his old friend 'Captain' James Bradshaw, in February, 1797. So ends the story of one of the founders of Ontario, the Banner Province of Canada, a real pioneer in every sense of the word and a firm United Empire Loyalist.

FAMILY OF JAMES AND LYDIA BRADSHAW

Captain James Bradshaw was born about 1723 in Ireland, was married twice and died in Canada, February 20, 1797. His first wife was Rachael Bostwick who was born June 17th, 1721, and died January 18th, 1752. They were married at the Congregational Church in New Milford by the Rev. Nathaniel Taylor, on September 19th, 1750. Of this union, David Bradshaw was born December 29th, 1751, and died January 13th, 1752, in infancy.

The second wife of James Bradshaw was Lydia Moss, a widow, and a daughter of Eli and Mary Roburds. They were married by Rev. N. Taylor on February 13th, 1753, at New Milford, and had the following issue born there:—

Thomas, b. Nov. 25th, 1754, no records, remained in Kingsbury.

Lois, b. Sept. 10th, 1757, no records.

David, b. February 5th, 1759, a U.E.L. (Chapter 4.)

Asahel, b. February 15th, 1761, a U.E.L. (Chap. 5.)

James, b. April 2nd, 1763, a U.E.L. (Chap. 6.)

* In his Report of Nov. 12th, 1787 Rev. Langhorn stated that he preached and Baptised eight children at Captain Bradshaw's in the 3rd Town and that Bradshaw is assisted in devine service by a man named Smith.

David Bradshaw, U.E.L.

FOURTH CHAPTER

DAVID BRADSHAW was born in New Milford, Connecticut, on February, 5th, 1759, and went to New York Province with his parents, James and Lydia Bradshaw, in 1764. He became a mechanic by trade and although he did not take up arms for the Tory cause during the American Revolution he served as an Artificer in the Engineer's Department during the struggle. His name appears on the Provision List in 1786 and he was likely stationed at Catarauqui (Kingston) with his father and brothers, Asahel and James, and came up to Fredericksburgh with Roger's group of United Empire Loyalists. He originally settled on Lot 13, Concession 5, of Fredericksburgh, in Lennox-Addington County, (which land was Granted by the Government Committee on Nov. 16th, 1790) and later on acquired Lot 20 in same Concession. On July 22nd, 1797 he received 400 acres as a son of a Lieutenant and was given a Certificate for Lots 98, in Concessions 1 and 2 of Ameliasburgh in Prince Edward County but found that the land was already in possession of the Hon. Richard Cartwright and he then received alternate lands in Lennox-Addington. On January 14th, 1808, he was returned to the U.E.L. List and served in the Militia in the War of 1812-14. In the 1808 Assessment Roll, for Fredericksburgh Township, he was listed as possessing 273 acres of wasteland; 15 acres of cleared land; 1 horse; 3 cows; and lived in a round-log house. He was married to ISABELLA McKAY on November 25th, 1784, by the Rev. John Bethune, and had the following issue:—

Lydia, Baptised Nov. 13, 1787, m. George Smith of Fred., Grant: Feb. 25, 1812.

The United Empire Loyalist Association of Canada was incorporated by Special Act of Parliament of the Dominion of Canada, Chapter 146, 4-5, Geo. V., 9114, 27th day of 1914.

N.B.—Those Loyalists who have adhered to the Unity of the Empire, and joined the Royal Standard before the Treaty of Separation in the year 1783, and all their children and their Descendants by either sex, are to be distinguished by the following Capitals affixed to their names—UE—alluding to their great principle, The Unity of the Empire.

Asahel Bradshaw, U.E.L.

FIFTH CHAPTER

ASAHIEL BRADSHAW was born February 15th, 1761, at New Milford, Conn., a son of James and Lydia Bradshaw. He went with his parents to the Kingsbury Patent in New York and joined the King's Royal Rangers in the service of George III. during the War of Independence. He served under Major James Rogers and was at St. John's, Quebec, on January 10th, 1782, and in Catarauqui in 1783, finally settling in Fredericksburgh Tp. (Lennox-Addington), where he was on the Provision List in 1786. The Land Board presented him with 500 acres of land for his services as a United Empire Loyalist and a son of a Lieutenant. In later years he acquired more land, owning 1000 acres in Fredericksburgh; 600 acres in Rawdon Tp.; Hastings Co., and 200 acres in Loughborough, Frontenac County. In the Fredericksburgh Tp. Assessment Roll of 1808, he possessed 940 acres of untilled land; 60 acres cultivated; 4 horses; 5 cows; and lived in a log house. On Jan. 22, 1811 Asahel Bradshaw mortgaged his Hastings Co. and Frontenac Co. property for £394, 15s., 4d., to Richard Robison of Fredericksburgh Tp. He was a shoemaker by trade and was probably one of the first to ply that trade in the Napanee district. He was also interested in other needs of his neighbors as he, and his cousin Sam Brownson, operated a 75 gallon Still which was Licensed on April 5th, 1802. AZUBAH HAWLEY, daughter of Jephtha Hawley, became his bride and twelve children were born of this union:—

NOTE—The word "Grant" following the names of these children of the Loyalists, is an abbreviation noting a land grant given by the Government, which usually consisted of 200 acres.

WEDDING BELLS

BRADSHAW—HENDERSON

A very pretty double ring ceremony was solemnized at Cannifton United Church on Saturday, November 24, 1951, at 2:00 p.m., when Rev. W. R. Merrick united in marriage Helen Irene Henderson, daughter of Mrs. Charles Henderson, of Belleville, and the late Mr. Henderson, formerly of Marlbank, to Charles Vivian Bradshaw, son of Mrs. Vivian Bradshaw, and the late Mr. Bradshaw, of R.R. 6, Belleville.

Given in marriage by her brother, Clare Henderson, the bride was radiant in her floor length gown of white chantilly lace over bridal satin fashioned with a molded bodice featuring a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves pointed over the hands. A halo head-dress held her three-quarter length veil of nylon net, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Arnold Carmichael, of Bancroft, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a floor length gown of mauve taffeta with lace trim, and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Miss Freda Switzer, of Roblin, was bridesmaid and wore a floor length gown of yellow taffeta with lace trim and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers, and little Ann Sevigny acted as flower girl and wore a floor length gown of rose taffeta and carried a bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mr. John Bent, of Oshawa, cousin of the groom, acted as groomsman.

George Henderson, brother of the bride, and Stanley Bradshaw, brother of the groom, acted as ushers. Mrs. Clarence Jarmin, of Marlbank, was soloist, and Mrs. Murney Marlin, of Enterprise, aunt of the bride, was organist.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's mother for a large number of relatives and friends. The bride's mother received in wine crepe and was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore navy blue crepe.

The happy couple left for Niagara and Buffalo, and the bride chose for travelling a navy blue crepe dress with lace overdrape and black accessories. On their return they will

Dear Friend:-

Although I have often thought of you I have neglected writing because I wasn't sure if it was my turn to write. If I have not thanked you ere now for CROUSE datum from Ottawa - please accept belated appreciation. I had a nice letter from Orlo Miller of London, Ont. (have you heard of him?) and he sent some very interesting data on the Crouses of that quarter and I am hoping to take up this family soon. I dropped it several times to concentrate on BRADSHAW and McTAGGART and now that I have run into a McTaggart rut, and have the Bradshaws on the press, I am going back to my first love-the Crouse family. I think that it is this angle to Genealogy that makes it a perfect hobby because you can never get tired of it with so many families to be traced. You run into trouble-or a brick wall- or unsavory relatives- and you go back to another family, and so on till you die. I am so fortunate to begin at an early age and will have much to look back upon when my travelling days are over. My Uncle, and very dear friend; Manley Ostrander of Deseronto; has suffered several strokes and is on the shelf for good. If you have not recieved a copy of his OSTRANDER family please write to him and enclose a dollar-he will be tickled pink.

I have been laid up with a broken leg- out roller-skating when I should have been home with my records- but I am back at work now, cast and all, and while recuperating I caught up on my Genealogical correspondance and finished the mss. on the Bradshaw family. You will have a Complimentary copy within ten days with the provison that you forward your honest criticism of the material, arrangement, binding, etc. Mrs. Marie Lowry was here recently and Valteau and I had quite a chat with ~~you~~ her-she is looking forward to a pleasant visit with you. Valteau is quite worried about not hearing from you. Is there anything I can do to help clear up the misunderstanding, if such exists? You and Val are both grand fellows and Al Genealogical pals so I am worried about the situation. Everytime I write to someone regarding this hobby I make it a point to mention the possibility of a Genealogy Club here in Ontario and everyone says, amen! so some sweet day I hope to grab off a duplicating machine and start the ball rolling. What do you think of the idea?

Enclosed find copy of notes sent to Dr. J. Sheldon Demarest of Stirling, Ont. and copy of my own "tree"-please return latter. Write some time, Sincerely yours,

BRADSHAW

The Bradshaw family of Ireland are supposedly descended from the old English landed gentry of the same name, and went there after the restoration of the Stuarts to the throne, the family was evidently sympathetic to the Cromwell regime.

John Bradshaw emigrated ~~to~~ from County Antrim, Ireland, in the year ~~17~~ 1740 and came to America settling in New England. His wife was Mary Wool by whom he had the following issue:- John, William, Peter, George, Margaret, Ann, and James.

James Bradshaw was born in County Antrim, Ireland, about 1727 and died near Napanee, Ontario, Feb. 10th. 1797. He married Rachel Bostwick on Sept. 19th. 1750 and she died Jan. 18, 1752. They had one child David, born Dec. 29th. 1751 - died Jan. 13th. 1753. James Bradshaw remarried on Feb. 13th. 1753 to Lydia Moss, a widow, who bore him the following:-

Bradshaw Family

This old English family was represented in Ireland by William Bradshaw, presumably settled in County Down. He and his wife, Mary, emigrated to America about 1728-30 and settled in Connecticut Colony. He acquired land in New Milford, as recorded in 1730 and 1731. In time William became an extensive landowner in the New Milford area. William became ill and is known to have made his will on 30th May, 1734, and died three months later on 7th August, 1734. Mrs Mary Bradshaw died about 1747 at New Milford, leaving her property to their youngest son, Thomas. The land estate of the late William was carried on by his two elder sons, John and James. One daughter, Elizabeth, became the wife of Samuel Brownson, who became a loyalist settler along the Bay of Quinte.

The branch of the family in which our interest is maintained ~~was the eldest son~~ ^{James} John. He had been born ^{about 1723} in Ireland before emigration; on 4th June 1740 he married Sarah Videtto.

The branch of the family in which our interest is maintained is that of James, the second son of William and Mary. He was born about 1723 in the old land, and came to America with his parents in 1737. He was twice married, first to Rachael Bostwick on 17th Sept 1750. Their only son, David, d 1851 in infancy. Mrs Bradshaw died 18th Jan 1752, aged 31.

Dear Doc.:-

Your very welcome letter has been recieved and note with interest that you have some datum on BRADSHAW (much to my surprise) and instead of asking you to mail same to me I thought it would be more practical to have you look over my mss. on the family. I would appreciate it very much if you would check the papers over and add anything, or correct, and give me your honest criticism of same. The galley proofs have been edited but I am sorry that I have no extra set to send you but the ~~m~~ enclosed carbon copy will suffice for now. You may mark the copy up as you please and I will check it with the page proofs when they come through about Wednesday. Valteau has gone over the records with me and has been of much value in offering suggestions. I am persistant about having this thing done as perfect as possible regardless of criticism of 'too much delay' or 'do you think the book will ever be published' but I reply that if the job is worth doing it is worth doing right. You will notice that I am taking the advice you gave me several years ago and have made the material easy to understand. The conventional style is OK for Genealogists but it gives the layman a nice headache.

Friend Valteau was pleased to hear that you are not on the "outs" with him and you are herewith excused for not replying to his letters. Beside the people you mention as being interested in the idea of a Genealogist's Club I may add the following who have also intimated an urge to join such an organization:- Orlo Miller of London, Dr. J. Sheldon Demerest of Foxboro, Mrs. L. Noxon McLean of Toronto, Mrs. McLean is Genealogist of the Govenor Simcoe Branch of the U.E.L. and is spending the summer at Picton. She is interested, through relationsnip, with the Morden tribe. A letter addressed to her at Picton P.O. would probably bring her to Bath for a discussion.

Please return proofs as soon as possible and let me know what you think of the job. The Index is my own invention so comments will be welcome.

As ever, Sincerely yours,

C. G. Crouse

Notes of C. G. Crouse, Ottawa

July 1942

The bearers of this name in England were mostly of the landed Gentry and lesser nobility and lived in the North & West coastal Counties. Thomas de Bradshaw was the sire of the first recorded family of this name and among his descendants is the celebrated Judge John Bradshaw, 1602-1659, who presided at the trial of Charles I and was first to sign his death warrant. William, b. 1596; Henry, b. 1600; Francis, b. 1603 were brothers of John and sons of Henry Bradshaw and Catherine Warrington who were married Feb. 4th, 1593. This family were Puritan followers of Oliver Cromwell and with the restoration of the monarchy under the Stuart line the members of the various branches fled to the American Colonies and Ireland in order to save their heads. It is presumed that this was the reason for the several Bradshaw families settling in the Northern part of Ireland at this time.

In old Irish records the following Bradshaws are mentioned, viz: John Bradshaw of Ballinderry; William Bradshaw of Mageragall; John Bradshaw of Mageragall; all of County Antrim, listed in Hearth Money Rolls for 1669. Joseph Bradshaw born in Cheshire, England, died March 23, 1673, buried in County Kilkenny, had a son Joseph. In the County Monaghan, at Fermagh, the following are buried; Valentine Bradshaw 1685-1757, Ann Bradshaw, d. 1752, James Bradshaw d. Oct. 28, 1778, aged 48, another James Bradshaw 1731-1801. Merion Graveyard, Dublin — Mary Bradshaw 1674-1772, Elizabeth Bradshaw, 1745-1821, wife of William. Mary (above) was mother of the same William. Count Edmund Bradshaw and Joseph Bradshaw were Commonwealth soldiers settling in Ireland in 1661. Among old Irish Wills the following are found: Richard Bradshaw of Co. Kildare, in 1596, John Bradshaw of Co. Monaghan, Tamer, in 1681, John Bradshaw, merchant, in Dublin 1714, Rev. John Bradshaw of Co. Meath in 1731.

The Milecross family lived about one mile from Newtownards, County Down, and were very prominent people. The family was established by a Cromwellian soldier named Captain James Bradshaw who was born in Yorkshire in 1619, joined the army of Parliament in 1639, and died Sept. 14, 1686, from wounds received at Drogheda in 1649. His wife, whom he married on April 22, 1656, was Ann Patterson, a daughter of Judge Robert Patterson of Isle of Man. Of this union there was a large family but records exist ^{on} only one member, James Bradshaw 1679-1754, who married Anna Turner in 1707, and whose descendants still own "Bradshaw's Brae" as it is still called. This family, who were "near relatives" of Judge John Bradshaw, the regicide, engaged in farming and the linen business and had a bleaching green at Milecross. The Bradshaws were members of the Quaker sect but later became members of the Anglican Church.

Note: Although much time and effort has been spent to connect the Canadian Bradshaw family to these Irish families, to date the compilers have not been successful. The foregoing information is presented only as clues for those who wish to carry on this genealogy at some future date. While definite proof is still lacking, we are quite certain that our Bradshaw family is descended from the Milecross family for the following reasons, viz.:

1. Our own "Captain Bradshaw" was a native of Ireland and his family were Quakers and Anglican.
2. William Bradshaw, the original American settler, called his new Colonial home "Bradshaw's Hill" or "Bras" and tried to establish a linen business in America.

3. When Captain Bradshaw established an Anglican Chapel in his wilderness home in Canada it was called "St. Warburg's" Parish, which was the name of the Parish at Newtownards, Co. Down.

4. The definite similarity in the names of the Milcross family and the Connecticut family.

These views are also shared by fellow Genealogists, who assisted in this work, in Ireland and in the United States. The Coat-of-Arms shown in this book was carried by both the English and Irish families. The old Tombstone pictured is from Newtownards, County Down.

The Early American Family.

Ch. II

William and Mary Bradshaw came to America from Ireland about 1728-30, and settled in the Connecticut Colony of New England. The first mention of the family is made when William bought 10 acres of land from Nathan Terrill on Dec. 4th 1730, and 12 acres from Jeremiah Canfield on March 17th 1731. These records from the land books of New Milford inform us that that land was undivided and that Mr. Bradshaw was "new" a resident of New Milford which indicates that he probably just settled there. From time to time more land was added to the holdings and the Bradshaw family became extensive landowners. The place where they settled was known as 'Punkin Hill' but later was called 'Bradshaw's Hill' and was located on the road between Newton and New Milford at a place called 'Still River Neck' at the Great River. This river is now named the Housatonic, and with the other places mentioned, it is located in Litchfield County, State of Connecticut. On the 30th day of May, 1734, William Bradshaw made his Will and died three months later on August 7th 1734. He named his wife Mary and his friend Samuel Canfield as his Executors and left the following possessions — Flat baskets, a loom, and cards; a feather bed, six books, a fiddle, etc., as well as home utensils, and his land real estate. (a copy of the Will is enclosed herewith). It is quite evident that Bradshaw intended to establish a linen industry in America but found conditions much different to those in his native Ireland. After his death the elder sons, John and James, carried on the land business and bought, sold, and leased, their lands along the Great River. Mrs. Mary Bradshaw died about 1747.

Captain James Bradshaw 1726

James Bradshaw was born in Ireland about 1726 and was a son of William and Mary Bradshaw of New Milford, Conn. His first business partner was John Roberts as a result of having inherited land when his father died and later on when his brother Thomas passed away, he also entered into the fishing business with his brother-in-law Samuel Brownson and operated a shop on the west side of the Great River for the catching, drying, and marketing of fish. Later on he decided to go into the land business - secured & organized a Land Company with 27 associates from Dover, and on the 11th day of May, 1762 they acquired 27,000 acres of land for Benjamin Willmar, in Albany County, New York Province. This land was known as the 'Hempstead Patent' and covered an area six and one half miles square and when the great Albany County was split up into smaller counties this area was renamed Charlotte County, and later on changed to Washington County after the American Revolution. The first to enter the tract was Bradshaw himself, who came in 1763, but did not bring his family until June of the following year. James Bradshaw sold land to Samuel Chandler on Nov 12, 1760 and with the proceeds he bought 500 acres of the 'Hempstead Patent' which was later called 'Bradshaw's Township' for the sum of £60. On May 7, 1764 he sold more of the property to Benjamin Richards before finally moving to the New York property.

The shop in New Bedford was lost when Henry Franklin foreclosed on a mortgage made to acquire funds for his Land Company.

When the original Thirteen Colonies revolted with a Declaration of Independence in 1776 the people had to make a choice of joining the rebels or remaining loyal to the Crown.
Among the latter we find James Bradshaw, of Hempstead, who received a Commission as a Captain and served in the 68th Regiment until 1775 when he was captured and imprisoned in Dunbar's Goal below Albany. He later on for some burned when Major Cartwright captured and he lived there until Woodstock, as shown in the house with the and suffered much for his loyalty to George III and the British cause. How he managed his capture is not known but he managed to reach the neutral port of New York City and came to Montreal where he was granted November 11, 1780. Later he petitioned for full pardon for which in a letter dated January 8, 1781 and in a month or so he applied to be placed in a Company of Rangers of the King's Loyal Rangers and was awarded at least a 1787 as a pension of £4 per month as a Lieutenant (although reduced to £2 as he was wounded). When the Treaty of Paris ended the American Revolution in 1783, Captain Bradshaw, as he was familiarly known, came with the disbanded troops up the St. Lawrence River and spent the winter in 1783 and subsisted on rations until provision was made for settlement. Captain Bradshaw and his three loyalist sons; David, Asahel, and James, Jr., finally settled with Major Rogers' group in Fredericksburgh Township, then called the "3rd Town," and went about the task of building homes in the wilderness. On July 12th, 1797 the old soldiers' tract was confirmed of 300 acres although he had been living on the land for 10 years and the place became known as Lot 14, on the 5th Concession of Fredericksburgh, where the M. E. Church was built some years later. On Feb. 25, 1788, David Bradshaw went to Montreal to represent his father and give evidence to the Claims Board in an effort to collect damages suffered by Captain Bradshaw in the War of Independence. In the evidence David claimed his father was old and infirm and therefore unable to attend personally; was a native of Ireland; had 56 acres improved and well-fenced (at Kingsbury) which he valued at £3.0 per acre; had nearly 450 acres of woodland valued at 16 shillings per acre; and lost furniture and farming utensils, etc. David also produced an affidavit from his son Thomas Sherwood to effect that Bradshaw was imprisoned in Desoper. Captain Bradshaw's home became known as "St. Warburg's Parish" of the Anglican Church and some of the first services of this sect in Ontario were held in his home. The Rev. John Langhorn, according to his papers of 1789, conducted services there (as well as marriages, and Baptisms,) and finally buried his old friend, (Captain James Bradshaw, on February 20th, 1797. So ends the story of one of the founders of Orleans, the Banner Province of Canada, a real pioneer in every sense of the word and a firm United Empire Loyalist.

Captain James Bradshaw was born about 1723 in Ireland and was married twice. His first wife was Rachel Bostwick who was born June 17th, 1721, and died January 18th, 1752. They were married at the Congregational Church in New Milford by the Rev. Nathaniel Taylor, on September 19th, 1750. One child was born of this union; David Bradshaw who was born December 29th, 1751 and died January 13th 1752 in infancy.

The second wife of James Bradshaw was Lydia Moss, a widow, and a daughter of Eli and Mary Roberts. They were married in the same Church by the same minister on February 13th, 1753 at New Milford, and had the following issue all born there:—

David Bradshaw, U. E. L.

David Bradshaw was born in New Milford, Connecticut, on 17

February 5th, 1759, and went to New York Province with his parents, James and ^{Hydia?} Lois Bradshaw, in 1764. He became a mechanic by trade and although he did not take up arms for the Tory cause during the American Revolution he served as an Artificer in the Engineers' Department during the struggle. His name appears on the Provision List in 1786 and he was likely stationed at Cataraugus (Kingston) with his father and brothers, Archel and James, and came up to Fredericksburgh with Rogers' group of United Empire Loyalists. He originally settled on Lot 13, Concession 5, of Fredericksburgh, in Lennox & Addington County (which land was granted by the Government Committee on Nov. 16th, 1790) and later on acquired Lot 20 in the same Concession. On July 22nd, 1797, he received 400 acres as a son of a Lieutenant and was given a Certificate for Lots 98 in Concessions 1 and 2 of Amherstburgh in Prince Edward County but found that the land was already in possession of the Hon. Richard Cartwright and he then received alternate lands in Lennox-Addington. On January 14th 1808, he was returned to the L. E. List and served in the Militia in the War of 1812-14. In the 1808 Assessment Roll for Fredericksburgh Township, he was listed as possessing 273 acres of waste land, 15 acres of cleared land, 1 horse, 3 cows, and lived in a round-log house. He was married to Isabella McKay on November 25th 1784, by the Rev. John Bellune, and had the following children:

Asahel Bradshaw, U.E.L.

Asahel Bradshaw was born February 15th, 1761, at New Milford, Conn., a son of James and Lydia Bradshaw. He went with his parents to the Kingsbury Patent in New York and joined the King's Royal Rangers in the service of George III during the War of Independence. He served under Major James Rogers and was at St. John's, Quebec, on January 10th 1782, and in Cataraugus in 1783 (?), finally settling in Fredericksburgh Tp., (then of Addington), where he was on the Provision list in 1786. The Land Board presented him with 500 acres of land for his services as a United Empire Loyalist and a son of a Lieutenant. In later years he acquired more land, owning 1000 acres in Fredericksburgh, 600 acres in Rawdon Tp., Hastings Co., and 200 acres in Southborough, Frontenac County, altogether. In the Fred. Tp. Assessment Roll of 1808, he possessed 940 acres of untilled land, 60 acres cultivated, 4 horses, 5 cows, and lived in a log house. On Jan. 22, 1811, Asahel Bradshaw mortgaged his Hastings Co. and Frontenac Co. property for £394.15s., 4d., to Richard Robison of Fredericksburgh Tp. He was a shoemaker by trade, and was probably one of the first to ply that trade in the Hastings district. He was also interested in other needs of his neighbours as he, and his cousin Sam Brownson, operated a 75 gallon Still which was licensed on April 5th, 1811.

1802. Elizabeth Hawley, daughter of Jephtha Hawley, became his wife, and eleven children were born of this union:-
